

Instructions for Navigating the website:

To enter transactions, either do it manually in the transactions tab or upload a picture called scan.

The investments page has a virtual stocks portfolio, where you can practice investing in stocks and get day to day news on stocks

Goals page allows you to add short term savings to save up and track your expenses for things you want to save up for

The account page allows you change user name and email address and change password. To change it type in the change you want to make in the boxes prompted in the site. Click save changes once you are finished to update information.